

Hollywood Profiles

Intro:

A quick lineup/ teaser of the star who's life and career will be shown in this episode.

Early Life

We will take a look at the life they had before they broke into fame. Where they were born and how they developed an interest in acting. After that we'll show which roles made the star famous. How did they react to their sudden stardom? And how do they look back on that time?

Personal Life

We take a closer look in their personal lives and get to know which people made their heart beat faster. How long were they together and why did they break up. And what about their fashion sense? What do they like to wear on the red carpet, which designers do they love and what piece of clothing is their favorite?

- BREAK -

Career and Awards

In Career and Awards we zoom in on all the films and roles they did and if they got rewarded for them. We discover if they attended the most important movie ceremonies like The Academy Awards and The Golden Globes.

Others About the Star

We talk to other actors and directors who have worked with the star. How would they describe them and was it a good collaboration?

Outro:

By now we learned all there is about the actors. Their rise to stardom, their hobby's, their love lives and fashion sense, their biggest roles and awards and their friends and colleagues in the business or outside.

We end with the stars themselves and their look into the future. What will become of them and how do they see themselves in a couple of years.